30 November 2021

Dear Parents/Carers

Storm Arwen - Updates for families eligible for Free School Meals

Following the closure of schools because of Storm Arwen, I am writing to confirm that all pupils currently entitled to statutory free school meals have been issued with a payment of £5.00 for the period 29 November 2021 to 30 November 2021. The payment is comprised by two days free school meals at £2.50 per day. For any pupils attending schools which remain closed for longer, further payments will be issued according to the number of days of closure.

Eligible families already in receipt of free school meals, do not have to apply for this funding. Payment will be made direct to your nominated bank account by 2 December 2021.

Further payments for Winter 2021

Following Scottish Government announcements earlier in the year, please see below the latest arrangements concerning Free School Meals and the Scottish Child Bridging Payments. Some frequently asked questions are answered too.

Expansion of Free School Meals to Primary 5 pupils

With effect from January 2022 universal free school meals will be expanded from Primary 1 to Primary 4 to include pupils in Primary 5.

Direct payment of Free School Meals for December 2021 holidays

All pupils currently entitled to statutory free school meals, will receive a payment of £25.00 for the period 22nd December 2021 to 4th January 2022. The payment is comprised by two weeks free school meals at £12.50 per week.

Scottish Child Bridging Payment – December 2021

All pupils currently entitled to statutory free school meals, will receive a Scottish Child Bridging Payment of £160.00.

Do I need to apply for this funding and when will I receive payment?

Eligible families already in receipt of free school meals, do not have to apply for this funding. Payment will be made direct to your nominated bank account by 17 December 2021.

Pre-school age child in funded early learning and childcare settings

Pre-school age children are not entitled to free school meals and, in accordance with the Scottish Government criteria, are not entitled to the Scottish Child Bridging Payment. This is because the Scottish Child Payment is now available. If you have not already done so you can apply for the Scottish Child Payment on mygov.scot.

I have recently applied for Free School Meals but I've not been notified of the outcome

If you have recently applied for income based free school meals, please be assured that we are dealing with all applications as quickly as possible, and we will contact you direct when your application has been processed.

Families who are on a low income but not currently in receipt of free school meals can check entitlement by completing the following online form:

Check entitlement and apply for free school meals

Children are eligible for free school meals if their parents (or carers) are in receipt of a qualifying benefit.

The current qualifying benefits and allowances are:

- Income Support (IS)
- Income Based Job Seekers Allowance (JSA)
- Pension Credit (Guarantee Credit)
- Any income related element of Employment Support Allowance
- Child Tax Credit (CTC), but not Working Tax Credit (WTC), and have an income of less than £16,105
- Both Child Tax Credit and Working Tax Credit with an income of less than £7,500
- Support under Part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- Universal Credit with a monthly take home pay of less than £625
(the qualifying benefits and allowances are subject to change)

If you are aged 16-18 years-old and receive any of the above qualifying benefits in your own right, you can apply for free school meals.

Future Payments 2022/2023

Four equal payments of £130 will be made at Easter, Summer, October and Christmas along with direct payment of free school meals. The payments will be made in line with the start of the school holidays. Further information will be provided in advance of the payment dates.
